Cathy,
I'm Really sorry about what Rick told you that I said about Bob, and I know how big of an ass I was to say

I guess I really wasn't thinking. Although we didn't

this summer we can get to be better friends (that's sounds like the regular year book thing, but I honestly do mean it). Oh well, I'll see ya later.

Love ya, Your friend,

Cathy-

Well, what can I say? I think you summed it all up with what you wrote. It's really funny that we think alike in some things because I was going to write the same thing you did. But that would be very un-kosher (un-pickle : pickles are kosher) get it? I can't believe how I would it is that only in a few months we have gotten to be so close. It's really far-out, and I think God, or who- over that this has happened. We have been through so much together and shared so many thoughts and experiences in such a short time that I can't even handle it. I'm really glad though, that I've found a friend that feels a love for people that I'm always had. what I mean is that you're not afraid to express it it as I once was. You see I did express it but no one seemed to be able to handle it, so once again I had to draw myself into another shell and hide my feelings. But, no more do I have to. You see Cath, with these months I have grown to love you. I do love your ways, thoughts, ideas and further more you. I could talk about this for hours if I really got carried away, but I can't. Hey... now I think I'll just try and sum up the year ok?

I'll never forget how mad we were at the beach when we thought Juana + Gayle had gone to 17th street to meet Tony + the boys. Then of course they didn't even get your twinkies. How maddening! Then the next thing was that stupid play at CV. which wasn't even there. So we went cruzing and had that delicious apple wine in King Donut glasses. But when you think about it, all we've really done was just cruz. Except when we went to the show. Ah, the show. That was an experience in itself & but how true it was Then "Baby" came. Ha! Ha! Oh, did I take that duty!! (You know me.) I don't think words could ever express anything about "Baby" so I won't go into great detail. Remember... the Art Festival? I just thought I would die. Have you ever seen a piece of fluff (down) sweat? Don't it beautiful? That was great. All of the good times are so far- out and the badness and had but have left an imprint on our hearts → which if we're ducky will be washed away in time like that of imprints on the sand washed away by the sea. We have to learn not to expect anything from some people and distort our judgements by feelings because we get hurt too badly. Then there were those nights at John's, at Humping Bill, at Bob's (restaurant); and of course that Baseball hot cinnamon drink and game and Art's party. I would like to thank you a treasure of words for being so understanding so helpful, and for —so good to eat— your so gentle ways to try and brush That each of us may away my tangles of are so unique, so be enriched your hair, that I admire you. (at least you can With dancing, walk in a party by yourself.) But as you sudden ideas said we have things And in common. For instance fleeting thoughts a summer friend, an admiration for a And basketball stud, a Box's Onion Rings; laugh for Jack off in the laughter. of course deformed dead-end streets, and and wish that Michael hobbies. I really hope It is good to speak of I hope so, because is just waiting it out things on then not only will if it's just a phase With you; you be hurt but so To fill the painful hollows will I, as you are a of disillusionment part of me. A very deep With and meaningful ~~Art~~ Part. New-found hope; And I love this part as I Or To multiply the joy of secret smiles for now they are shared; Or Simply to rejoice in the friendship of two kindred spirits such as You and I.

love you. There will be so many memories of this year and this summer too, I'm sure. May you never know pain to darken your brightest day. Let your heart + face work together and radiate. I also thank you for confiding in me with

In an attempt to find the meaning of our presence, each of us sought the answer in a different way. Despite the diversity of interests, the one element that lent meaning to our lives was friendship. This friendship may have existed as only a smile flashed across the quad or as the bond which led to the complete sharing of the self.

These pages cannot possibly capture this meaning, but a picture, a mood, a name, or an event may serve to remind you of a friend—and within that is the meaning . . .

Where've you been all year, I've hardly seen you at all. But I'm glad we finally got a chance to see each other if only for a short while. That made a lot of sence. But, its gone fast so far. I'll see you next summer.

Your famous first and last name as far as I'm concerned. Well Babe, we can do it better then they can any day. Right? (or should I say could) We haven't gotten together too much but I know we will in the future. Good luck and I'll see you this summer.

—Juana

Since the beginning of recorded history a certain amount of aggressiveness has been evident in man's nature. As man evolved and became more civilized, he invented games by which he could express his aggressiveness in a graceful way. This aggressiveness is directed toward winning but sometimes results in losing. Today, man's aggressiveness and his drive to win is still displayed on football fields, basketball courts, and swimming pools all over the nation.

We at Crescenta Valley express our aggressiveness in many sports. In some we have felt the agony of losing and in others, the ecstasy of winning.

Football '70

There are few sports as rugged or brutal as that of football. Many months of training are necessary to develop a team worthy of taking the beatings given by the opposition. Crescenta Valley's football team practiced long and hard during the summer. Our rewards were few but we are happy to be left with many exciting memories.

The varsity football season was marked with bad breaks and many injuries. The Falcons looked good in the first game of the season by defeating La Canada in a very close game. The Falcons were defeated in their next two games by two very impressive teams, St. Francis and Pasadena. Then the Falcons came back in their next game to destroy Glendale and even their season record at 2-2. After a loss to Burbank the Falcons were surprisingly upet by the Tornadoes of Hoover. Nevertheless, the Falcons retained their spirit and came back the next week to shut out the Muir Mustangs. It was the first time Crescenta Valley was able to defeat Muir in their history of confrontations. Unfortunately, Crescenta Valley lost their next two games against Burroughs and Blair. Perhaps we'll have better luck next year, C.V.!

Again this year Crescenta Valley remained the superior water polo team in the Foothill League. Fred Axelgard was most prominent in leading Crescenta Valley's varsity waterpolo team to a perfect 12-0 season. After defeating Muir in our last league game Crescenta Valley entered the CIF playoffs. The first CIF game was against a new San Marino team in which C.V. proceeded to win quite a decisive 18-3 score. Fred Axelgard lead the offense with seven goals while Stuart Craft had three. The following week Crescenta Valley beat Mira Costa in an exciting 10-6 game. Unfortunately, Crescenta Valley was finally eliminated from CIF play the following week when they were defeated by a favored team from Corona Del Mar. All in all, it was a great C.V. water polo season. Congratulations!

Cross Country

This year Crescenta Valley continued its fine tradition of having a fine cross country team. Under the coaching of Mr. Gilliland, C.V. varsity lost only one league meet to a very well-conditioned Burbank team. The varsity was led by the running of Rich Miccio, Tom Gordon, Mike Aguilar and Bill Tozer. Having finished second in the Foothill League, C.V. advanced into the C.I.F. prelims in which Mike Aguilar, Dave Veden, Mark Weaver and Tom Gordon made fine showings.

The sophomores also had a fine season, finishing second. Alan Warner, Cam Nicholson and Bill Boehle contributed greatly to the sophomore cause. C.V. will be hoping for their continued success.

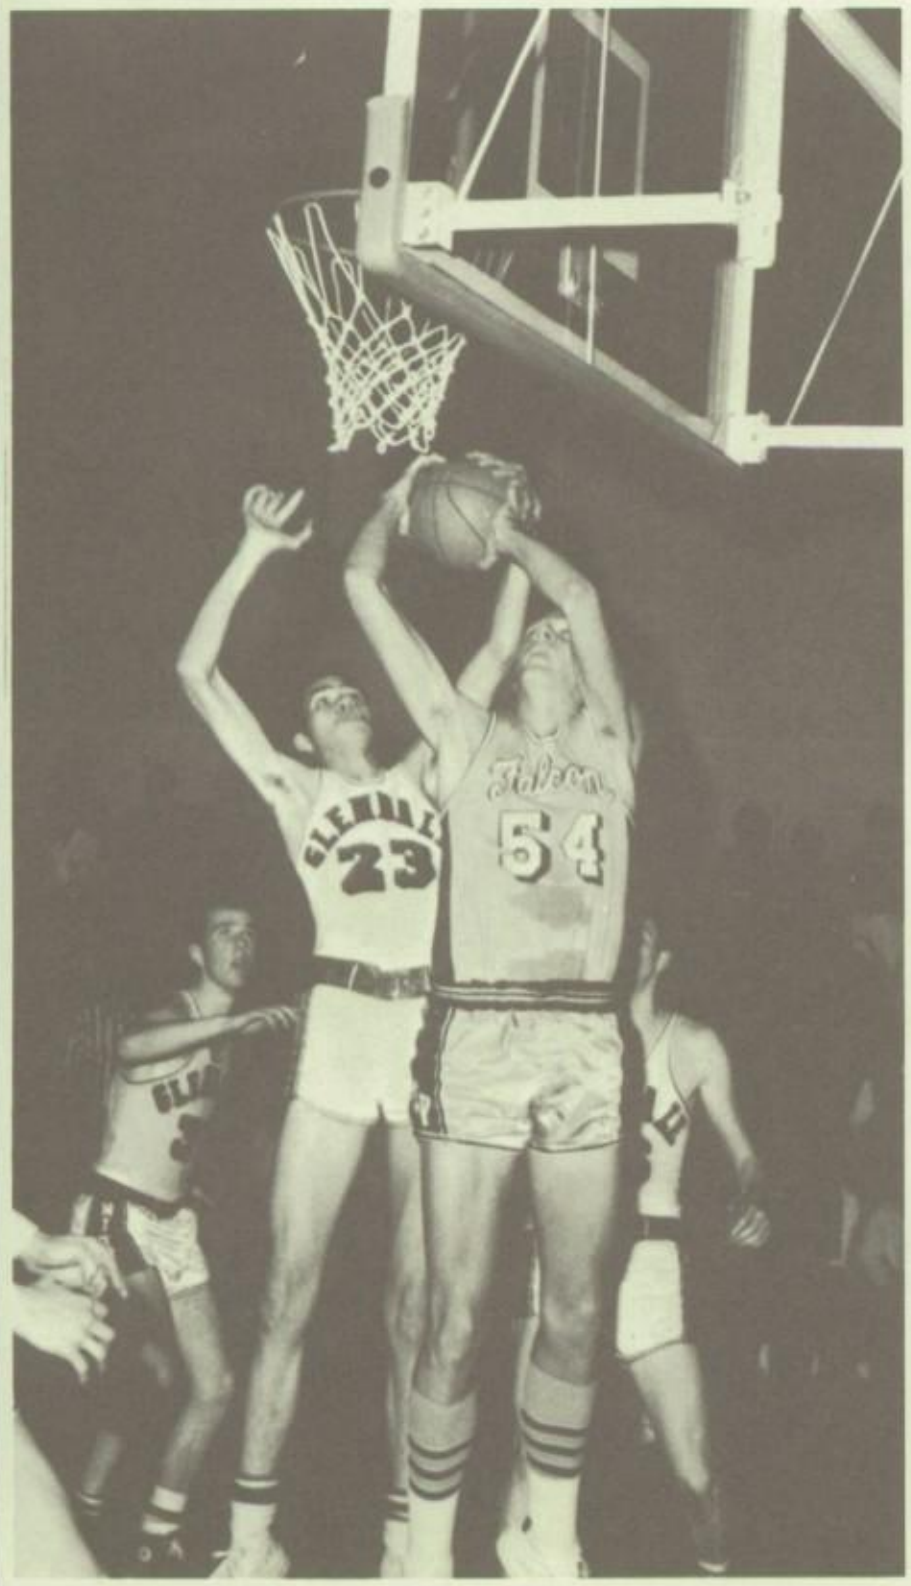
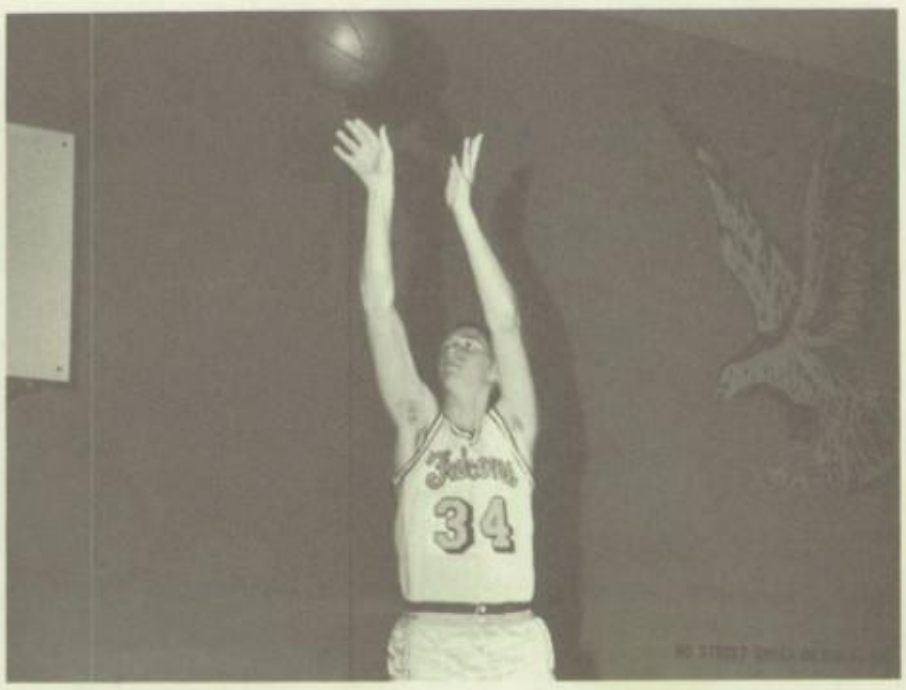
Basketball

If only one thing is certain in the world, it must be that Crescenta Valley dominates most high school basketball teams. Under the leadership of Mr. Goorjian Crescenta Valley had an impressive season. The year included almost every type of game from a two-point double overtime win over Glendale to a decisive forty-point victory over Muir. We'll take them either way. Congratulations on a fine season, C.V.!





C.I.F. 29-1

"We're proud, CV! We're proud!"

The 1971 CIF playoffs may well be remembered as the time when the school displayed its greatest sense of pride, the time when Crescenta Valley found itself. The 29-1 record was the best ever for a CV basketball team, and added another chapter in CV's excellent tradition of winning basketball.

Going into the playoffs at 25-0, CV was awesome, defeating Pioneer 81-32 in the first round, as Goorjian and Boyd both broke records (Goorjian for assists; Boyd for points). Loyola was next. Boyd and Jones combined for 45 points and CV romped again, this time 80-63. The Falcon cagers then soared into the semifinals, defeating Servite 76-62 behind Troy Jones' 28 points. In the semis they posted their final victory of the year, crushing Torrance, 79-56.

Few people will ever forget the championship game in the Sports Arena. Despite the fact that the Falcons lost a bitterly fought game against the number one ranked team, Verbum Dei, many CV fans went off into the night with traces of smiles on their faces, proud that CV had displayed as much pride and class in defeat as they had in victory. After the game, when the Crescenta crowd rose in a four-minute standing tribute to their team, the 11,089 people in the Sports Arena realized that they were witnessing something of much greater magnitude and importance than the outcome of a basketball game.

As Coach Goorjian's team stood facing the cheering crowd, many cried, while others simply felt their bones chill a little. No one knew quite what to say until the Drill Team began a chant which summed up everything . . . the work . . . the sweat . . . the victories . . . in one simple cheer. "We're proud, CV! We're proud!"

The Bee team, in their first year under Coach Mike Joseph, had a season of peaks and valleys. For the second consecutive year they swept through the Foothill Bee Tournament, only to start slowly in league action.

In the first round, the fledglings were plagued by inconsistency and dropped four of their first five. They recovered well and went on to win six of their last nine, winding up 13-9.

As a result the team had to practice from 6:00 A.M. to 8:00 A.M. at the YMCA pool. Nevertheless, some good performances by Fred Axelgard, Paul Snyder, Dan Volle, Stuart Craft, and Glen Simpson helped both the varsity and bee teams greatly. In the diving category sophomore Tim Crawford looked like a fine prospect. The varsity team also included Jeff Buck, Ron Crow, Brad Dahlstedt, Doug Powell, Paul Turner, and Chris Voegele.

THIS PAGE IS DEDICATED TO THE STAGE CREW.

Most of the time, they worked. Some of the time, they did nothing at all. Some of the time they were no better than the guys in San Quentin. At times some of them worked while some of them did nothing at all. In the long run, however, every show came off as well as it ever could have. They all came off.

They worked and they played. What they worked for they will probably never know. Most assuredly it was not for a grade.

November 7th was the date for the traditional Girls' League Backwards Dance. The dance, entitled "Once Upon a Time," was decorated in a fairy tale atmosphere, which included Alice in Wonderland-type murals. At ten o'clock, Girls' League President Val Rougier crowned Kip Hobby as king. Hobby's court included seniors Dan Coombe, Ian Mittler, Wilhelm Sutter and Jack Vercaigne. Entertainment for the girl-ask-boy event was provided by Freedom Train in the Girls' gym and by Beau Hale and Audrey Ellis in the cafeteria.

Children's Play

On Saturday February 27, the Child's Play was presented in the school auditorium. The play was the fun story, "Cinderella". The performance was a success.

The most agreeable of all companions is a simple, frank man, without any high pretentions to an oppressive greatness; one who loves life, and understands the use of it; obliging, alike at all hours; above all, of a golden temper, and steadfast as an anchor. For such a one we gladly exchange the great genius, the most brilliant wit, the profoundest thinker.

...your thoughts and secrets. It really makes me feel good.
If you ever need a shoulder to cry on or a hand to hold for guidance just remember I'll always be here. To help you through times of sadness, happiness, uncertainness, and misery. I won't let you down or turn away. Also try to remember that the "sweet and innocent" ones are who you have to watch out for, Right? Ride on!
Just think! There's only about 1 week to get the shove on at school; then we won't have to worry about it! We even get more acknowledgement
from Bradley Ross.

The officers of the junior class of '72—John Grant, president; Cathy Guzzo, vice president; Kathy Hartz, secretary; and Barbara Haas, treasurer—have succeeded in bringing prosperity to their class during the past academic year at Crescenta Valley. Their major money-raising endeavor of the year was the annual Junior Prom, entitled, "Moments to Remember," which took place during the month of December.

The juniors, with pride, leadership and spirit, are looking forward to a great senior year, one even more successful than this past year has been.

"Moments

Elaine Barker was crowned queen of the Junior Prom, "Moments to Remember", held December 12, 1970. The Prom Court consisted of Princess Kathy Hartz, with escort Bill Smith; Princess Donna Perry, with Rich Highman; Queen Elaine, with escort Bill Wright; Princess Bonnie Ember, with Bob Modes; and Princess Karen Zuelow, with escort Mike Schall.

The Prom, carrying the theme of "An Evening Walk in the Park", was a success for the Junior Class and was enjoyed by all who attended.

The band "Amerika" provided entertainment in the girls' gym for the Prom guests.

WELL CATHY - ITS ABOUT THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN. SO MUCH HAS CHANGED, YET SO LITTLE TOO. WE SEE OURSELVES IN DIFFERENT LIGHTS, DIFFERENT SHADOWS. OUR FRIENDSHIP HAS DWINDLED MANY TIMES YET I STILL FEEL THAT IT'S STILL THERE & WE CAN STILL TALK. I'LL BE GOING AWAY NEXT YEAR, SO AS LITTLE AS I SAW YOU THIS YEAR, IT'LL BE LESS OFTEN NEXT YEAR. I'LL BE LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN FUTURE, YOU'VE GOT MY NUMBER IF ANYTHING DEATHLY EVER ARRISES. JUST REMEMBER ALL THE GOOD TIMES & TRY TO FORGET SOME OF THE BAD, AND WE CAN STAY TOGETHER. I'M NOT GOING TO CLOSE WITH ANY SONG LYRICS 'CAUSE THERE AREN'T ANY I REALLY FANCY... EXCEPT MY OWN.

I LOVE YOU

MICHAEL (THANKS FOR EVERYTHING THAT WAS SAID AND DONE, CLARK)

Young—Night Thoughts

Right: Vice-President Don Urqidez

Below: President Bruce Siggard

Advisor: Mr. Jenson

As a sophomore class we have just begun our existence here at Crescenta Valley. However, we have already formed ambitions, new friendships, and memories. We have planned, acted, and succeeded in many activities, such as sports, academics, and social activities, including the backwards dance. Soon our thoughts must be turned to our future years at Crescenta Valley, for what our efforts produce will determine the success of our class.

Below: Treasurer Dede Kessler

A friend is someone to whom I can pour out all the contents of my heart, chaff and grain together. Knowing that the gentlest of hands will take and sift it, keep what is worth keeping, and with a breath of kindness blow the rest away.

If you visit your friend, why need you apologize for not having visited him, and waste his time and deface your own act? Visit him now. Let him feel that the highest love has come to see him, in thee its lowest organ. Or why need you torment yourself and friend by secret self-reproaches that you have not assisted him or complimented him with gifts and salutations heretofore? Be a gift and a benediction. Shine with real light and not with the borrowed reflection of gifts.

Afterword & Ed. Comment

There have been a lot of people who have given time and energy to put this book together, but there are a special few to whom saying thanks is insufficient. Besides solving a basic problem for us, Mr. Reuss understood. Mike Cena put up with print order forms and survived my dart throwing. Doug Rees and Fred Axelgard saved more than the senior section and the final deadline. Christi Courian pulled through uncountable pages. Vicki Forster was always around to do dirty work. I'm especially indebted to Pam and David.

The outcome of this year has been so predictable that we were able to pre-package the whole book and send it to the printer three months ago, feeling assured that nothing would change.

Idealistically, the staff worked with the hope that we could capture something different, something unique, that would set 1971 off from other years. Yet, all we seem to be able to offer are some of the big events, and a few static views of people on campus.

In the final analysis, it is really your reflections which will bring meaning to these pages. But that is enough.

A Salute to the Falcons' Best!

The varsity basketball team gave an accurate indication of what the season would be like, from their first few performances. After whipping St. Francis, the Falcons proceeded to win the Hoover-Burbank Tourney (the closest winning margin was 20 points) over Hoover, Dos Pueblos, and Burbank. In that tournament Bill Boyd was named MVP and Bob Trowbridge made first team. Things were no more difficult in the Alhambra tournament, as CV beat Muir 54-43 in the championship game there to move into League play with an impressive 11-0 mark.

CV rolled through the first round of League, surviving close calls against Glendale and Pasadena. Glendale extended the Falcons into double-overtime before Brian Goorjian hit a jumper with seven seconds left to win it. Pasadena led the Falcons in the fourth quarter before CV rallied to pull it out, 54-49.

In the second round, CV was even more impressive, rolling up impressive scores, such as 77-59 (Hoover), 80-41 (Burroughs), and 97-75 (Burbank). With the exception of the Blair game, CV beat every opponent by a larger margin than they had in the first round. The second half highlight was the impressive 58-50 victory over Pasadena which clinched the league championship. In that game, Brian Goorjian came through with a clutch performance of 18 points, as the Falcons went into CIF competition with a sparkling 25-0 record.

No one will deny that it was team play which made the Falcons the first Foothill League team to make it through League play with an undefeated record. However, all five ballplayers earned fine individual honors as well.

Bill Boyd broke the CIF career scoring record, scoring over 2100 points in a four-year career. Late in the season, Bill broke Marc Palmer's single season scoring record of 559 points. Boyd was honored by the Foothill League coaches, being named as one of the two Foothill League Players of the Year. Bill was named to the All-CIF team, providing a fitting climax to his excellent season.

Brian Goorjian broke Gordy Tope's single season assist record of 188, averaging nearly 8 assists per game. Brian's importance to the team cannot be understated. It was Goorjian's flashy passing and dribbling that enabled the towering front line to score. Brian did not have trouble with the press at any time during the year, as he often relied on his behind-the-back dribbling to weave his way through even the most thorough presses. Goorjian was named as a starting guard on the Foothill League's first team.

Troy Jones, the 6-8 senior, was named as the first team center, as he averaged 15 points a game on the year. At times, Troy seemed to be unstoppable, scoring at will with either hand.

Bob Trowbridge was rewarded for his solid rebounding with a berth on the Foothill League's second team. Bob will be returning next year, along with Scott Palmer.

Scott was placed on the All-League third team, making CV the only school whose starting five made one of the three teams.

The team finished at 29-1, their best record ever, and established Crescenta Valley as one of Southern California's top basketball powers, finishing with the number two ranking in CIF.
